

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. The authors of this book believe,—

- 1st.—That the Word Method is the most natural and practicable, because words are representatives of objects, actions, etc., while letters, or sounds, convey no meaning to the pupil, and are devoid of interest.
- 2d.—That words of ordinary length are as easily learned as short ones, provided they are familiar to the pupil. No teacher will doubt the statement that a pupil will learn the word “mamma” as easily as “says” or “eyes.”
- 3d.—That frequent “Reviews” are essential to the rapid and thorough advancement of pupils. By this means the words imperfectly learned are again brought to their attention and thoroughly memorized. That these “Reviews” ought to take up the new words in a different order and arrangement, in order to test the ability of the pupil to recognize them in any situation. That as soon as the vocabulary is large enough they should be written in the form of a new story, as on pp. 36, 44, 52, 60, and 68 of this book.

4th.—That thorough and systematic drill in “Spelling” is absolutely necessary. That the “Reading Reviews” should be so constructed as to contain all the new words used in the lessons they were intended to review, and no others, so that they can be used for “Written or Dictation Spelling.” That the pronunciation of the words in the “Spelling Reviews” should be indicated by the diacritical marks of Webster, so that they can be used for either “Oral Spelling” or “Phonic Drill.”

5th.—That the “Script” from which the pupil gets his first and most lasting impressions should be of large size and accurate form, and not of the nondescript character usually found in books of this class. That it should be free from superfluous line and flourish, and yet have grace and beauty. That it should be adapted for both copying and reading.

6th.—That the lessons should be largely “conversational in style,” to cultivate flexibility of voice and to break up the dreary monotone so frequently heard among children.

7th.—That the lessons of a book of this grade should not average more than seven “new words.” That all such words should appear at the commencement of lessons, and be familiar to the pupil. That this method secures careful gradation, and is in marked contrast to the old custom of having from fifteen to twenty-five.

8th.—That “Outline Drawings” of the objects first presented to pupils should be made in the presence of the class, as it stimulates them to draw, and thus makes easy and profitable the copying of the “Script Exercises.”

9th.—That the school book of to-day must be beautifully and copiously illustrated. That there must be variety as well as excellence, both in drawing and engraving. That well-known and famous artists must be secured, such as Harper, Fredericks, Church, Lippincott, Eytinge, White, Beard, Weldon, Thulstrup, Cary, Moser, Weaver, Share, and such engravers as Karst, Wigand, French, Held, Davis, Bogert, Hellawell, etc.

10th.—That the exercises must be instructive and the stories interesting and elevating, and that no artificial system ought to interfere with the free and natural use of words.

11th.—That a book of this kind should be suited to the wants of graded and ungraded schools, there evidently being nothing in the one not readily adaptable to the other.

12th.—That every book of this class should contain a collection of brief extracts from standard literature to be committed to memory.

13th.—That this book is constructed on the above principles.

them. Ha! I spy you,
Fred. You are in that box.

I spy you, Roy. You are under the hay.

I can not find Frank.

O there he is! I spy you, Frank.

Come out of that barn. I see your black cap.

Fred, you must shut your eyes now, and stand by the tree while we hide.

I will, boys. You go and hide.

Now, Ned, please do not put my kitty into the bath tub.

Yes, sister, I must give her a bath.

Here is the bath tub with some nice, warm water.

But, Ned, kitty will get sick if you put her into the water. She will take cold.

No, I will wrap her well in the big shawl, and then she can not take cold.

So Ned gave kitty a bath, and then put her into the nice, warm shawl.

Use your whip, Fred, and make our pony go faster. Come up to me and we will have a race.

Well, here we go. Hurra, hurra! Go on, pony, as fast as you can, and we will catch Frank.

We are going faster now, Frank, and will pass you in the race.

No, Fred, you can not pass me, for my pony can run faster than yours.

Well, we will see if he can.

I did, Frank.

Well, shut your eyes, Ned, while we go and hide.

Shall I stand by this tree, boys ?
Yes, we will hide, and then you must try to find us.

Well, go and hide.

One, two, three, four, five, six—look out for me, boys.

Here I come. Ha ! I see your barn.

I spy you, Roy. You are hid under the hay, and there is Fred in the box.

Now, Frank, you shut your eyes.

No, Fred, there is my pony, and I am going to take a ride.

Well, I will get my pony and ride, too. Shall we have a race?

Yes, but my pony can run faster than yours.

If I use my whip I can keep up with you, and I may pass you.

But there is my sister. I must go and see her. What is it, sister?

Please put this shawl over me, Fred. Wrap me up well, for it is pretty cold.

So kitty did not get sick, did she, sister?

O no, kitty is well, but she does not like the bath tub, Fred.

READING REVIEW.

Mamma', did you see the kitty catch the little mousie in the barn ?

Yes, kitty spied the mousie running to and fro.

I saw her pretty, black eyes glow, and soon she caught the mousie in her paws.

What a pretty kitty she is ! Her fur is like silk.

But look, mamma' ! There is the man coming with his bear. May I go out to see him ?

Yes, Fred, but Frank must go with you.

How well the bear stands up on his hind legs !

Yes, and see how he holds the stick in his paws.

O see him dance ! What funny things he does !

Where did the man get him, Frank? Did you ask him?

Yes, and he said that one time, a long while ago, he and his dogs were out hunting, and saw the bear up in a tree.

The bear was small then, so he was not afraid of him.

He cut the tree down, and as soon as it fell the dogs caught the bear.

Did they hurt him, Frank?

No, the man did not let them hurt him.

See, Frank, the man is coming here.

How do you do, boys?

How do you do, sir?

We like to see your bear play. We think he likes you.

O yes, he likes me, for I always take good care of him.

One time John set a trap to catch some, and then went away and hid with Dick.

Pretty soon a big rat came out of its hole and went to the trap.

Dick saw the rat and made a start to get away from John. But John said, "Hold on, Dick, let us see if it will go into the trap."

But the rat did not go in, and as it was going to run away, John let Dick go and said, "Catch it, Dick. Run quick, quick!" and they ran very fast to catch the rat.

But the rat was too quick for them. It went into its hole just as Dick was very near it.

Did he send the cage, too ?

No, mamma' gave me the cage.

Are they tame, Mary ?

Not yet, but I think they soon will be. They let me set food near them now.

When they are tame, you can let them out of the cage.

What a funny cap one of them has!

It looks like a cap, but it is not. It is a crest.

Then I said, "O Frank, look, look quick! See the little fish!"

Frank saw it, and ran to get his fish net. He put the net into the water, and caught the fish, and I put it into this dish.

Well, what will you do with it?

I will keep it, mamma'.

But, my boy, it will not live in that dish. Put it back into the brook.

I wish I could keep it. It is so pretty! May I put it into the pond?

I give him meat and bread.

Can a fox run fast, John ?

Yes. My fox can run very fast.

A little while ago, Frank was here with his dog Rover. The fox was afraid of Rover, and ran away.

When Rover saw the fox start,

he ran after him. O

how they did go !

They ran and ran, up hill, and down hill, but the fox ran faster than Rover, and got away.

Yes, here they are—bread, butter, cold meat, and a cup of nice milk.

Well, here is a chair for you, one for me, and one for my doll.

One day Ann and Frank went to the lake with Rover.

Rover can swim well, so Frank made him go into the water after a stick.

“Jump, Rover! Jump in and get the stick,” said Frank; and into the water he went with a big splash.

Pretty soon he came out with the stick in his mouth.

He did not like the fun as well as Frank, for the water was a little cold.

They had a fine time for a while with Rover, and then set out for home, as it was late in the day, and they could not stay long.

On the way home, Rover saw a rabbit, and away he went after it, as fast as he could go.

Ann and Frank ran too, but could not keep up with Rover and the rabbit.

When they got home Rover was there, and Frank said—

“Where is the rabbit, Rover?”

Rover gave Frank a funny look and went away.

“O I know,” said Frank. “The rabbit ran so fast you could not catch it.”

Yes, they are very fond of fish.
An eagle is a very large and strong bird. Mamma' saw one take up a rabbit and fly off with it.

I wish we could catch one, Frank. How funny it would look in a cage !

Yes, sister, but you would have to get a much larger cage than the one your red birds have.

O I would be afraid to have one. If it got out of the cage, it would fly away with me.

No, it could not do that, but it could hurt you with its strong beak.

The beak is its mouth. All birds have a beak, but not many have one as strong as the eagle.

Seven miles, and the snow and ice made it a cold ride.

Can we skate on the lake now, Fred?

Yes, the ice is strong. We can have a good skate. Do you want to go and try it?

O yes, Fred. I like to skate. Will you go with me?

Yes, as soon as I get warm. But John and Ann are coming over to see us.

Well, Fred, we will ask them to go with us. Ann likes to skate.

So Frank and his papa' got into the boat and put up the sail.

The waves were very high, but Frank was not afraid. The boat was strong, and his papa' could sail it well.

The waves dashed over the side of the boat, but the more they dashed, the more fun it was for Frank.

When Frank got to be a man, he was so fond of the water that he went to sea in a large ship.

He learned how to sail the ship, and after a while he was made captain of it.
